1. MDM HALIMAH YACOB The Eighth President of the Republic of Singapore

CITATION

Mdm Halimah Yacob served Singapore with singular distinction over four decades.

She broke multiple barriers, blazing a trail for women and achieving many firsts: The first Singaporean to be elected to the Governing Body of the International Labour Organisation (ILO); the first Malay woman to be elected a Member of Parliament (MP); the first female Speaker of Parliament; and the first female to occupy the highest office in the land – President of the Republic of Singapore.

Mdm Halimah began her career in the Labour Movement in 1978. She gave herself to the cause of working people, eventually becoming Deputy Secretary General of the National Trades Union Congress. Over 33 years of devoted service, she contributed extensively to formulating, strengthening and enforcing labour standards, both locally and internationally.

Elected to Parliament in 2001, she served four terms as an MP. As Minister of State in the Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports (2011-2012) and later in the Ministry of Social and Family Development (2012-13), she was a relentless champion for many social causes, including opportunities for single mothers and the children of lower-income families, support for persons with mental health conditions, and healthcare for the disabled and elderly.

After serving as Speaker for four years (2013-2017), Mdm Halimah was elected the eighth President of Singapore in 2017. As the Head of State, she raised Singapore's international image, strengthened the nation's ties with friends near and far, and opened new economic opportunities for Singapore companies.

THE ORDER OF TEMASEK (WITH HIGH DISTINCTION)

[Darjah Utama Temasek (Dengan Kepujian Tinggi)]

She was also a powerful symbol of unity for all Singaporeans; an inspiration to all, young and old; “a President for everyone”, as she promised on her inauguration. Apart from her official duties, Mdm Halimah was the patron to many charitable and welfare organisations. She expanded the President’s Challenge to promote skills upgrading and employment, advocate for more inclusive and accessible workspaces, and support the mental health of young people. She also initiated the International Conference on Cohesive Societies to promote interfaith and multicultural dialogue. Throughout her Presidency, she worked tirelessly to strengthen mutual understanding, trust and respect across diverse communities, and to engage Singaporeans from all walks of life.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Mdm Halimah exercised the President’s custodial power over past reserves on an unprecedented scale, approving a total draw of up to $69 billion. She set a high benchmark of how the President, advised by the Council of Presidential Advisors, should wield the second key. With her rigorous and searching questioning, and her considered and informed support, the Government was able to use past reserves judiciously and decisively to save lives, preserve jobs, and stabilise the economy. History will record Mdm Halimah’s great service to her people as their first Crisis President.

Mdm Halimah’s remarkable journey from humble beginnings to become the first female minority Head of State is testimony that every Singaporean can achieve his or her dream, regardless of race, language, religion, or family background.

For embodying so fully the Singapore Story – and for her lifetime of devoted and distinguished service – Mdm Halimah Yacob is awarded the Order of Temasek (With High Distinction).
