

Write-up on Mr George Wei Sze Shun

Mr George Wei obtained his Diploma in Law (post-graduate) from the School of Oriental & African Studies, University of London in 1978, and later obtained his Masters in Law with a mark of distinction from the University College London in 1984. Mr Wei has been called to the Bar of England & Wales (1977), Hong Kong (SAR) and Singapore (1983). Mr Wei's teaching experience in Singapore goes back to 1979 when he was engaged as a part-time tutor for a term at the National University of Singapore (then University of Singapore)'s ("NUS") Faculty of Law. Thereafter, Mr Wei returned to Hong Kong where he was called to the Bar. Mr Wei practised briefly at the Hong Kong bar before returning to Singapore in 1981 when he joined the NUS Faculty of Law as a full time staff member. Mr Wei remained with the NUS until 2005. Mr Wei then joined the Singapore Management University as a Professor between 2005 and 2013.

2 Mr Wei is regarded as a leading force in Singapore in intellectual property law having authored numerous papers and articles including five books on copyright and intellectual property rights.

3 Mr Wei, age 58, is married with a son.