

*Lee Kuan Yew
Singapore*

Copy No 25

Note No.5/2011

20 July 2011

Cabinet

38 OXLEY ROAD

I have previously written to Cabinet that the house should be demolished. It has no foundations and is in poor condition. It is difficult to maintain if people start trampling through the house. Whenever there is piling in Killiney Road for new homes, hairline cracks begin to appear on the walls. So keeping the house is too hazardous and costly.

I therefore repeat my wish to have the house demolished when I am no longer alive.

